- Loved by listeners around the UK and the rest of the world, singer-songwriter Nick Cope's work takes on a new form in this series of illustrated books.
- Nick's hilarious, uplifting, and sometimes poignant writing has garnered acclaim from audiences, including comedians Stewart Lee and Lucy Porter, and can now be experienced by children alongside his playful and distinctive illustrations.
- As much praised by parents for the freshness of his content, the storytelling element of Nick's work finds a natural place on the page, ideal to be read with or to young children as a contemporary alternative to traditional tales.

Why is the Sky Blue? is an entertaining and endearing take on the inquisitiveness of young children, featuring Joe and his parents and all the weird and wonderful questions Joe has about the world.

- Find each song on Nick's website (www.nickcope.co.uk) and YouTube channel to sing along to.
- Lyrics and chords for each song are in the back of the book for children and adults to play along.

Nick Cope is a musician who runs regular sessions in and around Oxfordshire for young children. He is a frequent performer at schools and theatres and many of the large music festivals and events for families all over the country.
