

Queen of the Sky (Compact Edition) by Jackie Morris

Publication 11 August 2020. £12.99.

Queen of the Sky by Jackie Morris, now available in this compact, A5-size edition.

In Queen of the Sky, Jackie Morris tells the story of how her friend Ffion Rees rescued a peregrine falcon from the sea off the remote coast of West Wales and her subsequent journey, nursing the falcon back to health and back into the wild and the incredible bond which grew between the two.

Jackie describes the risks, triumphs and above all the trust which developed and formed the basis of the falcon's path to back to health and back to the freedom of the wild. Beautifully illustrated throughout with photographs, drawings, sketches and magnificent paintings by Jackie, this is a must for birdwatchers, art lovers and romantics alike.

'Queen of the Sky is a love letter to all things wild, but also to friendship and to the courage that admits that to attempt to own the wild is to destroy it. Yet wildness is captured and held for the reader to possess in Jackie Morris' photographs and paintings.' Robin Hobb

An internationally best-selling author, artist and illustrator, Jackie Morris has over thirty years'
